It is with great pride that we, the class of 1964, dedicate this edition of the Crest to Mr. George M. Costello, an excellent master, an understanding guidance counselor, and a devoted friend.

Mr. Costello, your unremitting efforts to help us realize our potential as students and as men will be long remembered. In years to come we shall look back to our days at the Crest and remember you as someone who, somehow, always managed to "find the time." We are sure that your guidance and instruction will play a large part in making our succeeding years, both in college and beyond, truly, years of success.

In saying good-by we extend our heartfelt best wishes for your future endeavors.

Dear Mr. C:
This year, I can honestly say, has been a most profitable and enjoyable one due to my very close association with you. I look forward to future years of the same sort.
Sincerely,
George M. Costello

HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

To succeed as a man, you must have a brain, a heart and a sense of humour—the brain to do the minding, the heart to do the feeling, and humour as the hyphen permitting the functioning of both.

You must know facts profoundly and in depth but have the depth of understanding which comes from the sensibilities, and yet cast both in an ambivalent subjective-objectivity which enables you humouristically to see yourself as others see you, and empathically to see yourself in others.

Then you no longer cavil, you no longer are the cynic, but become the enthusiast and optimistically strive to the utmost and learn to the utmost. You are a man.
